

"Bison is the meat for the new millennium.

Bison meat is fast becoming a desired alternative to beef due to its healthy attributes and nutritional advantages"

– Carter Gooding, bison rancher and Chef de Cuisine

Our Story

Canadian Prairie Bison (CPB) is a marketing group that evolved from the Bison Feeder Cooperative of Saskatchewan (formed in 2001). CPB focuses on developing value-added bison products, daily operations in sales/marketing and Value chain development, from producers through to wholesalers and retailers.

CPB has members from the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba.
